

Abstentions and Disqualifications - Conflicts of Interest and When One Must or Should Step-Aside

Webinar

It can be difficult for public officials to determine when to abstain from the decision-making process. This webinar will discuss:

- What financial interests and other conflicts of interest disqualify an official from participating in, or influencing, the decision-making process;
- Guidelines for deciding when to abstain; and
- What to do if you abstain or disqualify yourself from the process.
