

Effectively Managing Up: How to Work with City Councils, Boards of Commissioners, Elected Officials and CEOs

2021 CALPELRA Annual Training Conference

November 17, 2021

3:35-4:35

Serra 1

In this session you'll learn how to navigate the challenging obstacle course of managing up! You'll learn from a panel of experts about the secret sauce ingredients for getting results through the power and influence of effectively managing up. You'll learn about the elements of setting goals and developing strategy with city councils and boards of commissioners, effectively communicating and requesting parameters at closed session, preparing CEO evaluations for productive reviews by council, and responding and managing the often times never ending requests from city councils and CEOs.
