

Joan Cox presents “Understanding California Public Contracts and Procurement Regulations” Lorman Continuing Education Webinar

RELATED PRACTICES

Public Law
Construction Law
Litigation

RELATED PEOPLE

Deirdre Joan Cox

Burke partner and Construction Law practice group chair Deirdre Joan Cox with be the featured presenter of “Understanding California Public Contracts and Procurement Regulations”, a live webinar taking place on April 22, 2023, from 10:00 to 11:30 am PDT. This AIA CES and CA State Bar CLE accredited program is hosted by Lorman Continuing Education Services. During her 90-minute discussion, Ms. Cox will:

- Explain recordkeeping requirements.
- Identify chronological signposts where securing early legal advice on public construction contracting and project management activities is critical.
- Highlight important considerations for a strong contract.
- Review best practices to prevent and manage any ensuing disputes and litigation.

This live webinar is designed for attorneys, presidents, vice presidents, purchasing professionals, construction and project managers, administrators, city officials, engineers, architects, owners, contract managers, planners, and government contractors. For further enrollment information, please visit: https://www.lorman.com/training/public-works/understanding-state-public-contracts-and-procurement-regulations-in-california#credits

This presentation is also offered as a Lorman on demand webinar through the following link. https://www.lorman.com/training/public-works/understanding-state-public-contracts-and-procurement-regulations-in-california?discount_code=Y1410028&p=13389

© 2025 Burke, Williams & Sorensen, LLP. All rights reserved.