

Riptide Ahead: Preventing and Responding to Dangerous Workplace Conduct

CALPELRA 39th Annual Training Conference
Monterey, CA

Violence in the workplace is an increasing cause of concern for public agencies. A safe and positive workplace is a goal that all employers share. In addition to acts of violence in our workplaces, issues involving conflicts between employees and with the public, bullying, and hazing are growing, and often lead to violence. In this session you'll learn the warning signs of these issues, and how to prepare your workforce to prevent and respond to an imminent threat of workplace violence.
