Somewhere Over the Rainbow: Legal Lessons Learned from the COVID-19 Pandemic

2021 CALPELRA Annual Training Conference
November 17, 2021
1:45-3:15
San Carlos 4

This comprehensive session covers emerging liability and litigation issues stemming from the COVID-19 pandemic. Over 400 employment-related lawsuits have been filed in California over the last year. You'll learn about some of the most common causes of action, legal theories, and employer defenses arising from these cases. This session focuses on what your organization can do to prevent and mitigate against liability stemming from these types of cases and developing policies and practices that will translate into a healthy and legally-compliant workplace for the long term.

RELATED PRACTICES

Employment Law and Litigation

RELATED PEOPLE

Private: Traci I. Park

© 2025 Burke, Williams & Sorensen, LLP. All rights reserved.