

Standing Up To Stereotypes and Discrimination Against Asian-Americans/Pacific Islanders

Discrimination against Asian Americans/Pacific Islanders is not just a recent phenomenon. Our speakers and panelists will address strategies to stand up to anti-AAPI hatred and stereotypes, based on their collective experience in public service and education, and as community members, with emphasis on the role that school communities can play to promote a safe and equitable society for all.

This event took place on May 6th, 2021 and the recording can be viewed here.

RELATED PRACTICES

Public Law
Education Law

RELATED PEOPLE

John R. Yeh