Stephen Velyvis to Present ‘Nuts & Bolts of CEQA and Recent Executive Orders’ to Beverly Hills Bar

Burke Environmental, Land Use & Natural Resources practice group partner Stephen E. Velyvis will present ‘Nuts and Bolts of CEQA (California Environmental Quality Act and Recent Executive Orders)’ to the Beverly Hills Bar Association (BHBA) via webinar on Tuesday, June 24 at 12:30 pm PDT. This California State Bar accredited CLE will introduce attorneys to CEQA, focusing on its purpose, procedural framework, and key compliance requirements. ‘Nuts and Bolts of CEQA’ will cover essential steps, including environmental review and public participation, while offering practical tools for navigating CEQA effectively. The program also examines recent state and local executive orders and their impact on rebuilding efforts in wildfire-devastated areas of Los Angeles, highlighting the interplay between emergency responses and CEQA compliance in light of these orders. Designed for attorneys new to CEQA or seeking a refresher, this webinar equips participants with knowledge to confidently advise clients and navigate California’s essential environmental law and qualifies for 1.0 hour of General credit.

‘Nuts and Bolts of CEQA’ is free to BHBA members. Non-members can register for a fee here.
