

Think Before You Tweet: Social Media Basics for Local Government Officials

Burke Webinar

Social media presents elected officials with a tempting but sometimes risky platform for communicating with constituents. This educational and entertaining webinar focuses on the First Amendment, the Public Records Act, and the Brown Act. Traci I. Park and Kelly A. Trainer frequently advise public agencies on social media use, and will help officials navigate the ever-changing social media landscape without putting themselves or their agency at risk.

RELATED PRACTICES

Employment Law and Litigation

RELATED PEOPLE

Private: Traci I. Park

Private: Kelly A. Trainer