Algeria Ford is a member of the Public Law, Labor and Employment, Litigation, and Education practice groups.

As a Public Law attorney, Al currently serves as City Attorney for the City of Simi Valley, Assistant City Attorney for the City of Cathedral City and Assistant City Attorney for the City of Rialto. Al also serves as General Counsel for the Banning Library District and General Counsel for the Ventura County Waterworks District No. 8. In addition, Al serves as special counsel in the area of employment law for the Hesperia Unified School District, the Val Verde Unified School District, the Victor Valley Union High School District and the Apple Valley Unified School District.

As an employment lawyer, Al provides special counsel labor and employment services to multiple public entities as well as private entities. Additionally, Al routinely serves as lead labor negotiator, has an investigation practice, handles disciplinary appeals and grievance procedures, and advises on a myriad of employment issues including in specialty areas like police (POBRA) and Fire (FFBORA).

In the area of litigation, Al has extensive experience handling labor and employment, civil rights, tort and premise liability, and code enforcement lawsuits. Al has also handled appeals in the California Court of Appeal, as well as the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Finally, Al also has a robust training practice and routinely trains clients on emerging issues for public entities including in the law enforcement, employment law, and records disclosure context.

Prior to joining the firm, Al represented public sector clients while employed with the San Bernardino Office of County Counsel as a member of both the litigation and employment groups. He also previously worked as a Deputy District Attorney with the Orange County District Attorney's Office, where he prosecuted multiple cases to jury verdict. Al started his career with the Louisville Metro Public Defender's Office, obtaining successful results for clients at hearings and jury trial.

During law School, Al was the Editor-in-Chief of two of the school's three legal journals, was a member of the Moot Court Board, and served on the school's National Trial and National Environmental Moot Court Teams. He won the School's prestigious oral advocacy competition during his second year of law school and received honors for obtaining the highest grade in Advanced Constitutional Law, Advanced Trial Practice, and Criminal Procedure.
