Caylin Jones is a partner in Burke's Los Angeles office.

While in law school, Caylin served as a staff member on the Journal of International Law where her article, "Saying I Don't to Child Marriage," was chosen for publication. She also worked as a research assistant in evidence law assisting in bringing the eighth edition of Norman Garland's "Criminal Evidence" textbook up to date. Caylin received the Witkin Award for Academic Excellence in Civil Procedure and Contracts and the CALI "Excellence for Future" Award for Constitutional Criminal Procedure and Evidence.

Caylin has defended nearly every type of litigation that a law enforcement agency could face, including officer-involved shootings, class action litigation, malicious prosecution claims, allegations of excessive force, and allegations of unconstitutional jail conditions. In 2023 Caylin's defense verdict on behalf of the City of Los Angeles was selected by the Daily Journal as one of the top 20 defense verdicts in the state in the publication's annual Top Verdicts edition.
