AFFILIATIONS

Lawyers Club of San Diego

Elaine Kobylecki is a Senior Associate with the San Diego office of Burke, Williams & Sorensen and a member of the firm's Litigation Practice Group. Elaine represents clients in all stages of litigation in both state and federal courts.

With nearly a decade of defense litigation experience, Elaine is experienced in commercial litigation having counseled clients across numerous industries, including retail, consumer goods, construction, transportation and logistics, government contracting, and professional services, in a variety of matters including products liability, breach of contract, catastrophic injury, wrongful death, and risk management.

Elaine is attuned to our clients' needs as she navigates them through the challenges of each phase of the litigation cycle. She is committed to achieving the most favorable outcome on behalf of clients from both a legal and practical business perspective.

Her broad-based litigation experience has enabled Elaine to be adept in handling a variety of discovery disputes. She has extensive deposition experience having taken and defended over 80 depositions as lead counsel, including plaintiffs, experts, treating physicians, and third-party witnesses. Elaine also has substantial experience in alternative dispute resolution, having represented clients at mediations, mandatory settlement conferences, and early neutral evaluations.

Outside of the office, Elaine enjoys traveling, snowboarding, scuba diving, and discovering new restaurants.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS
