Karli Jungwirth is an experienced civil litigator with a wide-ranging skill set across a variety of practice areas. Karli has handled complex civil matters in both state and federal court.

Karli attended University of California San Diego, where she obtained a Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry and Cell Biology and was the Team Captain of UCSD's Women's Basketball Team. After working for two years at a molecular biology lab in La Jolla, Karli attended law school at University of San Diego School of Law, where she graduated cum laude and was a member of the San Diego Law Review.

With two decades of legal experience, Karli has built a career dedicated to serving clients with integrity, compassion, and a commitment to achieving the best possible outcomes. Specializing in business and employment litigation, Karli approaches every legal issue with the belief that effective legal representation is rooted in understanding and addressing the individual concerns of clients. She is committed to excellence in legal practice and the well-being of the clients served.
