DRI Life, Health and Disability

Nicole Blohm is an experienced litigator in the life, health and disability and ERISA practice area. In addition to litigation, she served as in-house counsel and law department manager for an insurer. Nicole applies her insurance experience to her litigation practice and focuses on quality and efficiency.

Nicole defends insurance carriers in short and long term disability, accidental death and dismemberment, and life insurance benefits disputes governed by ERISA and state laws. She practices in Federal and State courts in California and the Ninth Circuit and handles matters from the pre-litigation stage through final resolution, including negotiations, mediations, trials, and appeals.
