Stephanie Vollmer is an associate in Burke, Williams & Sorensen's San Francisco office and a member of the Public Law Practice Group where she provides advisory services to public entities. Prior to joining Burke, Stephanie worked as a new attorney for the City of Benicia where she wrote ordinances and advised city officials on Fair Political Practice Commission (FPPC) matters.

Prior to specializing in public law, Stephanie was a research attorney for the Honorable Bonnie Sabraw (Ret.) at ADR Services, Inc. where she worked on complex litigation cases. Stephanie has also worked as a volunteer and pro bono attorney on legal matters involving landlord/tenant disputes, debtors' rights, and guardianships for the Bar Association of San Francisco's Justice and Diversity Center; Bay Area Legal Aid; and, the Alameda County Bar Association's VLSC division where she was Volunteer of the Year in 2017.

Before entering the legal profession, Stephanie owned a marketing and advertising firm specializing in high tech, publishing, and consumer goods whose clients included companies ranging from PayPal, TiVo, and McAfee, to Wired magazine, Fodor's, bareMinerals, and the YMCA.
