Sydney Gronroos is an associate in Burke's litigation practice group in the Los Angeles Office.

While in law school, Sydney served as a member of the Moot Court Team where she competed in oral argument competitions, receiving accolades for her brief writing and oral advocacy. Sydney also served as Vice President of the Criminal Law Society and Criminal Practice Clinic. Throughout her law school years, Sydney clerked at numerous District Attorney's Offices throughout California, including San Francisco, Los Angeles, and San Bernardino. Upon passing the bar, Sydney was sworn in as a Deputy District Attorney in San Bernardino County and served that position for two years. While at the District Attorney's Office, Sydney was able to conduct five solo criminal jury trials to verdict, including taking the first fentanyl DUI to trial in San Bernardino county. Now, Sydney plans to use her background in prosecution to assist the Law Enforcement Defense Group at Burke.
