AFFILIATIONS

California Lawyers Association -

Zachery joins the firm with several years of experience in all matters of public sector collective bargaining. This includes serving as a lead negotiator, administrative litigator before local adjudicative bodies, contracted adjudicators, and the California Public Employee Relations Board ("PERB"), and civil litigator in both state and federal courts with an emphasis on collective bargaining and public law matters.

Zachery is also an experienced appellate litigator, having served as lead counsel for and argued matters before several state courts of appeal and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, and lead counsel before the United States Supreme Court on behalf of several large entity clients as amicus curiae. He is also experienced with public employee disciplinary matters.

Zachery received his law degree with distinction from the University of Pacific, McGeorge School of Law, and is a member of the Roger J. Traynor Society, McGeorge's scholastic honor society. He received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of California, Davis, with majors in political science and philosophy. He is an alumnus of the University of California Washington Center in Washington, D.C., where he studied and worked in public policy development as an undergraduate. Zachery is currently a graduate student at the University of Southern California's Sol Price School of Public Policy, and is a member of Pi Alpha Alpha, the national honor society for public affairs and administration.
