Best Lawyers again distinguishes Burke's Real Estate Law Team and chair Anna Shimko

Best Lawyers and U.S. News & World Report has included Burke in its 2022 Tier 2 rankings of Land Use and Zoning law firms. The land use and environmental review team within Burke's Real Estate practice group has been distinguished by Best Lawyers each year since 2016. Firms included in the 2022 edition of U.S. News – Best Lawyers® "Best Law Firms" are recognized for professional excellence, with consistently impressive ratings from clients and peers. To be eligible for a Best Lawyers practice group ranking, a firm must first have a lawyer recognized in The Best Lawyers in America®, which recognizes 6% of lawyers practicing in the U.S. Burke Real Estate Practice Group chair Anna C. Shimko (named to The Best Lawyers in America® for 'Land Use and Zoning' each year since 2012) was also selected by Best Lawyers as this year's "Lawyer of the Year" for Land Use and Zoning Law in San Francisco. Shimko noted that "Burke's team is very proud to be continually ranked for creative real estate development and land use regulation solutions, understanding our client's business goals and the exceptional service we deliver to our clients."
