

Court of Appeal Issues Important Clarification of Summer Unemployment Benefits for School Employees

Burke Education Law Alert

The California Court of Appeal has issued a significant ruling on the rights of school district employees to obtain unemployment benefits during the summer, ruling that substitute teachers and classified employees who receive “reasonable assurance” of returning during the succeeding academic year were not eligible for unemployment benefits for the summer, even if they were unable to obtain employment during the summer school session.

Download

RELATED PRACTICES

Education Law

RELATED PEOPLE

John R. Yeh