

Court of Appeal Rules that Personnel Investigations are Privileged

Burke Employment Law Alert

On June 8, 2016, the Court of Appeal, First District, ruled that a personnel investigation, performed by an outside attorney investigator, is protected by the attorney-client privilege and the work-product doctrine. City of Petaluma v. Superior Court (Cal. App. 1st Dist. June 8, 2016, No. A145437).

Download

RELATED PRACTICES

Employment Law and Litigation

RELATED PEOPLE

Samantha W. Zutler

© 2025 Burke, Williams & Sorensen, LLP. All rights reserved.