

Court of Appeal Upholds Teacher Dismissal Based on Oral Charges Presented to District's Board of Trustees

Burke Education Law Alert

The California Court of Appeal recently ruled that dismissal of a teacher by the Hueneme Elementary School District based on charges presented orally was proper, even though the District's Board of Trustees did not act on written charges. This case continues the recent trend of the courts and the Legislature to find ways to make teacher dismissals more streamlined and less costly.
