

Federal Court Upholds Right of Public School to Prohibit Students from Wearing American Flags

Burke Education Law Alert

On February 27, 2014, in the case of Dariano v. Morgan Hill Unified School District, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that public school officials did not violate the U.S. Constitution when they refused to let students wear American flags on their shirts during Cinco de Mayo celebrations given the history of threats and fights at the school.
