Where Do We Go From Here?

Marin County Bar Association

In the recently decided case, Where Do We Go Berkeley et al. v. California Department of Transportation, the Ninth Circuit weighed in on how a public entity, Caltrans, may clear homeless encampments on its property, and what is required by the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) when “critical safety concerns” are present (9th Circuit No. 21-16790, April 27, 2022).
